Hercules Technology Growth Capital Announces the First Distribution of Realized Capital Gains of More than $3 Million Representing Approximately $0.10 per Share to be Distributed in 2008

PALO ALTO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 27, 2007--Hercules Technology Growth Capital, Inc. (NASDAQ:HTGC), the premier specialty finance company providing venture debt and equity to venture capital and private equity backed technology and life science companies at all stages of development, today announced that the Company anticipates that it will have approximately $3.2 million to $3.4 million of realized long-term capital gains in 2007 from its warrant and equity investments. The Company intends to elect to pay the 4% excise tax so that it can spillover the capital gains for distribution to its shareholders in 2008. These distributions represent a return of approximately $0.10 per share to its shareholders based on the current shares outstanding.

About Hercules Technology Growth Capital, Inc.:

Hercules Technology Growth Capital, Inc. is a NASDAQ traded specialty finance company providing debt and equity growth capital to technology and life science companies at all stages of development. Founded in December 2003, the company primarily finances privately held companies backed by leading venture capital and private equity firms. Hercules invests in a broad range of ventures active in technology and life science industries and offers a full suite of growth capital products up and down the capital structure. The company is headquartered in Palo Alto, Calif. and has additional offices in the Boston, Boulder, Los Angeles and Chicago areas. Providing capital to publicly-traded or privately-held companies backed by leading venture capital and private equity firms involves a high degree of credit risk and may result in potential losses of capital.
